The breadwinner bias in social-security arrangements is particularly strong in Belgium and, to a lesser extent, in Germany and the Netherlands. Maternity and parental-leave schemes show considerable variation among countries. Services also reveal important differences. Germany and the Netherlands spend more on social services (especially for the elderly and the disabled) than Belgium and Italy

Group Long-Term Disability vs. Individual Disability ...

If you are the breadwinner of your family, you need to protect your paycheck. If you suffer a disability and can no longer work, your partner will likely need to work longer and harder to replace your income and cover medical bills. However, if you have disability income insurance, you can keep the bread on the table and prevent your partner from having to work multiple jobs. #1 Reason
